

Cansa "wins" at Boardwalk

The Boardwalk donated R10 000 to the Eastern Cape Cancer Association. The funds were collected during The Boardwalk Shavathon which was held during April this year.

Taking time out from her busy schedule promoting the World Series of Slots tournament, Miss South Africa, Tatum Keshwar did the handing over of the cheque.

According to Peggy Mokhatla, Social Equity Manager at The Boardwalk, R4 200 was raised on the day and The Boardwalk then more than doubled the amount and rounded it up to R10 000.

"This is a very worthy cause and it deserves a generous donation. It is also something very close to our hearts because the wife of our general manager recently passed away from this disease," says Mokhatla.

The Eastern Cape Cancer Association received R10 000 from The Boardwalk. Seen above at the handing over of the cheque are (from left) Joan Duarte (Cansa), Tatum Keshwar (Miss South Africa), Peggy Mokhatla (Boardwalk: Social Equity Manager) and Gordon Mbovane (Boardwalk: Operations Manager).